

Immigrant PLEI Consortium

9852=

260 – 800 Hornby Street
Vancouver, BC V6Z 2C5

April 8, 2010

Qiyam – Bi-weekly Newspaper
Cultural House of Mawlana Society
2537 Upland Drive
Vancouver, BC
V5S 2B6

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of the Immigrant Public Legal Education & Information (PLEI) Consortium to thank Qiyam – Bi-weekly Newspaper and the Cultural House of Mawlana Society for your tremendous support towards the community sessions of this project. IPC is a consortium of 12 agencies composed of immigrant settlement agencies and public legal education and information agencies. Our goal is to improve the delivery of public legal education and information so that newcomers to British Columbia will be able to address their legal needs. A key activity this year has been to inform members of various cultural linguistic communities in Metro Vancouver on aspects of residential tenancy law and employment law. One of the communities for the project was the Dari speaking community residing in Metro Vancouver.

We very much appreciate your cooperation and willingness to advertise in the newspaper and on www.houseofmawlana.com as a public service, our community session for the Dari speaking community residing in Metro Vancouver on Residential Tenancy law and Employment law for approximately a month prior to the session on March 24, 2010. These public service announcements assisted us in achieving a positive attendance to the session. We had 119 people attend the session on March 24, 2010.

Once again our sincere thanks to the staff and all those involved with Qiyam Bi-Weekly Newspaper and www.houseofmawlana.com.

Yours sincerely,

Sandra Wilking,

This project is made possible through funding from the Government of Canada and the Province of British Columbia.

